THE MIRROR

OF

1961

Presented by the Senior Class

Manlius, High School

Manlius, Illinois

Dedication

We of the Senior Class of Manlius High School dedicate this 1960-1961 Mirror to Mr. Earl Stickels, in appreciation for his contributions to the school and community. We cannot express our appreciation nearly enough for his great service.

Mr. Stickel has given us the privilege of using the gymnasium at New Bedford for five years. The High School baseball team of the community uses Mr. Stickels' baseball diamond. Without the use of his diamond many of these teams could not have organized and played.

We cannot thank him enough for the great service he has given us.

SENIORS

banquet. Master of Ceremonies, Larry Briscoe, presided over the program. Robert C. Briscoe, president of the Board of Education, spoke before the meal was begun.

Queen Sits at Head Table The retiring queen, Barbara Ellis, and her attendants, as well as the other officers, seated at the head table. Designed by Miss Mary Ellis, the plaques behind the main table featured scenes from daily American life. Also carrying out the theme were the program cards, drawn by Barbara Ellis. On the banquet tables were bouquets of flowers along with white and silver tapers and flags of the United States. Members of the Board of Education, their wives, school officials and other guests were seated at the center table.

Sophomores Serve Served by the sophomores in the direction of Miss Brink, the meal consisted of minted pineapple cocktail, turkey, sage dressing, peas, whipped potatoes, beans, mushes. Parker strawberies and ice cream. King and Queen were seated in the center of the room and escorted by their attendants. Carla knelt while the crown was placed upon Barbara's head. The paper balloon in the ceiling flew through the room. A band directed by Mr. Parker played from a platform in the rear of the room.

Advanced world history, geometry, a foreign language, science and physics, and hygiene or athletics. Advanced English, world history, business and business mathematics, arts, and gymnasium are elective subjects to sophomore students.

Scholarships To Four Students

Ward Smith, Bill Judy Line, and Bob Morris, have been awarded scholarships.

Ward, who will attend Westminster College, will receive a $285 tuition for his first year. He ranks in the upper third of the senior class.

A Curators' Scholarship of $170 toward tuition was awarded Bill Judy. Judy plans to attend the School of Mines at Rolla. Judy received a scholarship to Lindenwood College.

Senior Class History 1957—1961

On August 28, 1957, 26 green freshmen entered Manlius High School to start four years of hard work and fun. During the year we gained Skip Konneck. Our officers were: Don Schaefer, president; Mary Raabe, vice-president; Joani Cooksey, secretary; Bob Hadley, treasurer, and Mr. Lager, advisor. We started raising funds this year for our prom and class trip.

As sophomores we began our school year on August 29, 1958, with 27 classmates. During the year we lost Richard Funderburg, Carol Henson, and Pat Heater, but we gained Ned Thompson, and Bill Elmore. Our officers were: Don Schaefer, president; Dick Woodley, vice-president; Joani Cooksey, secretary; Bob Hadley, treasurer. Mrs. Block and Miss Ashdown were our advisors.

Ready to begin our last 2 years of high school, we elected officers on the first day of school, August 27, 1959. They were: Don Schaefer, president; Connie Klockenga, vice-president; Pat Heater, secretary; Bob Hadley, treasurer; Miss Ashdown and Mr. Jenkins, advisors. This year we gained Pat Heater, Betty Sierens, and Bill Swartzendruber and lost Bill Elmore and Pat Lindelof. Our memorable event was our prom "Hawaska."

On August 29, 1960, we started school with 24 classmates. We lost Ton Davidson, Jeri Jean Miller and Ron Smeltzer during the summer. Our class officers were: Don Schaefer, president; Pat Heater, vice-president; Betty Sierens, secretary; and Joani Cooksey, treasurer. Mr. Clement and Mr. Deany, were elected as class advisors. To end our four years at M.H.S. we will take a wonderful class trip, a project we have worked hard to achieve.

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of 1961, being of sound mind and body, do hereby declare this to be our last solemn will and testament.

Barth A.--I will to Roger L. my ability to perfect a new shot in basketball.

Kent C.--I will to Dale S. my ability to get a chair at the station at noon.

Joani C.--I will Cathy H. my ability to lose weight.

Carolyn E.--I will to Donna S. my ability to sing off key.

Doreen F.--I will Herb M. my ability to get along with Mineral kids.

Bob H.--I will to Sandy J. a loaf of Wonder Bread and a bottle of vitamin pills to build strong bodies twelve different ways so she might be big and healthy like me someday.

Pat H.--I will to Sharon V. my ability to get cheering my senior year.

Bill J.--I will Don K. my ability to get along with all the teachers and my bad grades.
Bob J.--I will to Dick N. my hook shot so that he can play basketball a little better next year.
Connie K.--I will Kaye M. a permanent seat on the bus for Penny and him.
Skip K.--I will to Dick C. my ability to have the wettest towel after P.E. class.
Nancy L.--I will to John L. my ability to get a locker not in alphabetical order although my seat in study hall is so.

Theresa M.--I will my ability not to be nervous when I ride with Herb and Skip to Randy C.
Bob N.--I will Dexter B. my ability to think quickly while playing defensive end in football.
Judy N.--I will my ability to Dixie to play a good game of volleyball in P.E.
Mary R.--I will Fred E. my ability to pester Mr. Jenkins without having to write themes.
Frank R.--I will my height to Gerald McCoy.
Don S.--I will Paul N. my ability to keep Vernon smiling on the bus route.
Betty S.--I will to Gary D. my ability to say more in a minute than he can say in an hour.
Bill S.--I will my ability to Frosty S. to keep the girls away.
Ned T.--I will Clare F. my ability to play center line backer.
Marilyn T.--I will my ability to Carol S. to play a good game of volleyball in P.E.
Bonnie W.--I will Paulette S. my ability to get around the country of Thomas and New Bedford.
Dick W.--I will to Alan K. my ability to give as much to athletics size percentage-wise as I have.
Doreen F.--I will to Kay N. my ability to talk, talk, talk.
Theresa M.--I will to Beth J. my ability to get the car once a week to take the girls bowling.
Don. S.--I will Maurice S. my ability to sing so he can join the boys' octet.
Betty S.--I will to Doris J. my ability to sing off key.

Class Prophecy

As we neared the city of Manlius, for the reunion of the class of 1961, we noticed a big change. All that stood there was the park and the adjacent cemetery. Our limousine had to park more than a mile away from the park because of the long line of new cars.

Trodding back to the center of action, we saw a man getting out of an old car. It was Bob Neahring, famous for all his hot rods. The car in front of him was a brand new Buick which we found out was Connie Klockenga's. Being a famous hair stylist, she can afford it.

In the park we saw a woman taking notes. As we approached we noticed it was Nancy Lindelof. She now works for a large newspaper company in Chicago. We also found out that Pat Heater lives in Chicago, too. She is a personal secretary to the president of one of the large popcorn manufacturers.

There was a man standing at the end of the park looking at the livestock in the next field. Of course, it was Bob Hadley, now the county vet. A brand new milk truck came roaring into the park. We recognized Skip Konneck, driver for the "Leafy Lane" dairy in Princeton. Skip always did do well in Princeton.

The entertainment for the day was Doreen Fox, who still sings quite well. She's married now but still uses her maiden name for the stage. Betty Sierens (now married too) didn't have time to sit and talk. She was too busy watching her darling children.

Shortly thereafter, in walked a man we both knew, Senator Donald Schaefer--possible future presidential nominee. We noticed a woman preparing the lunch over an open fire. Judy Newman, now a Home Ec. teacher, always was a good cook.

We heard someone boasting about his fine crops. We couldn't see him so we walked nearer. In the midst of some tall men was Dick Woodley, State Farmer! A carload of girls drove in, jumped out, and ran toward Ned Thompson. A professional football player always had a lot of fans who want autographs.

Someone yelled, "Come on let's eat!" It was Barth Anspach who now owns his own restaurant and eats all he wants. Kent Carpenter, now owner of a huge tobacco company, was passing out smokes to everyone. We asked Bonnie Wiseman what she was doing "nowadays." She said that she was still living in Thomas and was head nurse at the hospital there.

Somebody was working on a new Hudson. It was Bill Swartzendruber who started up a new line of Hudson cars because he couldn't live without a Hudson around. Mary Raabe said she had to get back home and take care of her children. She had hired a driver to take her around because she never did learn to drive right. Carolyn Ellis had to leave too, she is a nurse and had an important date at the hospital.

Up drove a car load of men and Theresa Michlig left like a jet. She still dates all the boys, but she says she's going to settle down soon. Frank Rasmussen was leaving too, said he had to get back and pick the corn on his 2000 acre farm.

Marilyn Thorpe was another nurse who was from Manlius High. She also had to get back to her job. As Marilyn was leaving, she was almost run over by a huge truck tearing out of the park. It was Bill Jensen who now owns a large trucking company.

Well, everyone was gone and we sat talking things over. Oh, by the way, our names are Joani Cooksey and Bob Johnson. I, Joani, am married now and every afternoon my husband and I have an argument at 4:00. He doesn't like American Bandstand, but I do.

I, Bob, am married also. My wife is mean to me but I have certain ways of telling her who is boss around the place where I farm.

We hope all of us will be back for our next reunion and all the rest to come.

Joani Cooksey (Little Woman)

Bob Johnson (Longfellow)

American history.

Consider the coffee and tea hour under the direction of Mrs. Elma Oenning. home-made cookies and mint appeared on the menu.

To honor Miss Helen Hedrick, student teacher from the University of Missouri, home economics classes served coffee and tea to the faculty January 21.

With 34 points each, Jim Burt, Jon Langford and Bill Johnson wrote perfect papers in Mr. Allen Johnson's social history test on Culture Before the Civil War.

An investigation paper to show students how to do research is being written in the English class. More extended papers of the same nature are required in college.

From Jeanne Hilt andstance Smith, Korf received perfect papers on his examination over "Principles of Assumption."

Biology classes, under direction of Mr. William T. Tamm, are beginning the study of life.

Out of a possible 150 points Miss Mary Morris' Latin class, Mrs. Judson and Mrs. Johnson received 143, and

Junior Officers

Mr. Bourquin, Sponsor; Dick Nelson, Pres.; Carol Snodgrass, Treas.; Paulette Sandrock, Sec.; Mrs. Deany, Sponsor; Fred Ericson, Vice Pres.

On August 29, 1960, twenty nine jolly juniors entered M.H.S. for our first year as upperclassmen.

Our officers for this year are as follows:

President: Richard Nelson

Vice President: Fred Ericson

Secretary: Paulette Sandrock

Treasurer: Carol Snodgrass

We elected Mrs. Deany and Mr. Bourquin for our class advisors. We are planning to have several dinners, a car wash, bake sale, selling sweat shirts, and a class play as money making projects.

Forrest Schuneman tied for first place in a magazine sales contest and was awarded a radio. One of the most thrilling events was the receiving of our class rings and we are all proud to be wearing them. Our float "Crack Walnut" won first place in the Homecoming parade. We are looking forward to the Jr.-Sr. Prom and will try very hard to make the Senior's last prom one that will be remembered.

ORGANIZATIONS

Band Tag Day Raises $473

Receipts from Band Tag Day amounted to $473 which will be used to purchase four complete band uniforms for next year.

Because the enrolling band students had exceeded the number of uniforms required, the tag day was held to raise money for the new uniforms. Band members and parents were stationed at various corners of city streets.

"Receipts from the tag day will more than pay for the uniforms and coats," said Mr. J. W. Springer.

Annie Virgil, the class senior blonde, will be Mrs. Virgil following selection.

Student Council

SEATED: Frosty Schuneman, Joani Cooksey, Mr. Milburn, Ann Swan, Pat Heater, Paulette Sandrock.
STANDING: Bob Hadley, Dean Lubbs, Jim Thompson, Dick Nelson, Sharon Harrison, Don Schaefer, Randy Mullin, Lyn Nelson.

The Student Council has organized again after a lapse of eight years. Three representatives were chosen from each class. A presidential campaign was held with petitions, posters, and speeches. The Student Council plans to be very active this year with such activities as the Homecoming and money making projects. The Student Council hopes to set a good pattern for the years to follow and boost the morale of the school.

The officers are as follows:

President	Bob Hadley
Vice president	Frosty Schuneman
Secretary-treasurer	Joani Cooksey
Advisor	Mr. Milburn

French Club

This year the Manlius Chapter had a membership of thirty-four. We went to the Farm Progress Show and the International Livestock Exposition. Five boys showed at the fairs and took several high honors. We also sponsored a Harvest Ball which was an informal square dance. At our Harvest Ball we elected Nancy Lindelof as our Chapter Sweetheart. The ball was well attended and enjoyed by all.

As all organizations require money, we had our share of fund raising campaigns. We sold fire extinguishers, garden seeds, pens, candy and just about everything that you can imagine.

Our officers for the year were President, Dick Woodley; Vice-president, John Lefman; Secretary, Dick Nelson; Treasurer, Kent Carpenter; Reporter, Roger Lubbs; Parliamentarian, Bob Neahring; Sentinel, Bob Johnson; and our advisor was Mr. Clement.

Although the records show that this year wasn't too successful, we all feel that there was tremendous school spirit and loyalty. The team performed very well in the first home game they've played in Manlius for two years with a six to six tie with Bradford. Also the town peoples' spirit was very high. They raised over six hundred dollars for a new scoreboard for the new football field. We started the season with eight lettermen and are losing four of them. So, if the school spirit improves like it did this year, Mr. Bourquin and the team should have a fine season next year.

Basketball

This year the Manlius Red Devils had one of their most successful seasons in the Blackhawk Conference. Our first game with Walnut showed us we were going to have a very exciting season; although we lost to them in an overtime. From then on we had some of the most exciting games that we have seen for years. Two of our games were won in the last second by spectacular shots by Dick Fordham, one of the starters. The cheerleaders, with the very fine pep club, yelled their lungs out to lead the team and Mr. Jenkins through a successful season.

The starters for most of the games this year were Bob Johnson, Dick Fordham, Randy Carlson, Fred Ericson, and Skip Konneck. The varsity cheerleaders were Pat Heater, Nancy Lindelof, Mary Raabe, and Betty Sierens. The junior varsity cheerleaders were Nell Ann Lower, Nancy Nelson, Ann Swan, and Karen Van Duesen.

There are a lot of very fine players coming up in the lower classes so Coach Jenkins and the team should have a very successful season next year also.

"THE PEOPLE VERSUS MAXINE LOWE"

"The People versus Maxine Lowe" was a tense, dramatic courtroom play in three acts. It covers the trial of Maxine Lowe, who is accused of killing her husband. This play proved to be very exciting and emotional. The audience's response proved this was a very good play.

Junior Play

THE FOREST PRINCE

The junior class presented an operetta entitled "The Forest Prince" written by Paul Monroe.

TIME--Latter part of Sixteenth Century A. D.

SCENE--Act I--Sunset and evening, the Cossack camp.

Act II--The throne-room, the Tsar's palace in Moscow.

Act III--Evening, the Cossack camp.

Cast of Characters

Tatiana, Princess of Russia, held for ransom by Cossacks.

Sonia, a bluff, hearty, but friendly Cossack girl.

Vaslav, the young, handsome chief of the Cossacks.

Ivan, Cossack, friend of Sonia and Vaslav; a great joker.

Tatiana's Lady-in-waiting.

Ilytch, a Cossack, next in rank under Vaslav.

Mother Vanya, an old woman of the tribe of Cossacks; later Vaslav's foster mother.

Tsar Mikhail, the aged ruler of Russia.

Prince Dmitri, prospective husband of Tatiana, general of the Russian armies; a coward.

Jester at the Tsar's court.

Messengers, Cossack men and girls, Russian soldiers, Courtiers, Ladies of the court, etc.

Argument

Tatiana, a princess of Russia, is held for ransom by the Cossacks. Although Dmitri, prince of Russia and her fiance, is general of Tsar Mikhail's army, he is too cowardly either to rescue Tatiana or defend Russia against invading Tartars.

Vaslav, chief of the Cossacks, goes to the Tsar's court to get the ransom. He finds himself admiring the Tsar, and offers the help of the Cossack forces against their common enemy, the Tartars.

The Tartars are beaten, and the two victorious people peace. Events show that Vaslav is the son of Tsar Mikhail, long ago captured by the Cossacks. Since he is of royal blood, Tatiana, who has fallen in love with him, may marry him.

ADMINISTRATION

ions of both America and Russia should be through understanding each other's ways," says Oreopoulos, who spent the first 12 years of his life in Russia before immigrating to Germany. "He does not believe that Americans will ever go to war with each other if the countries know each other's mutual problems and well-liked customs. He has accepted being a student in the United States because his fellow students enjoy volunteering for English history classes. The senior, however, has adapted very well to the American way of life.

"Although I like the educational system here, I feel that it is not as strict as it is in Russia. Students constantly be on the move, while the education depends more on the development of the personality and the personal ambition of each individual," he adds.

Assigned to give two minute speeches on "Family Life," Mrs. Virgel Dent's speech class, most students at first seemed to lack original ideas, but the results of the assignment, as many students some interesting and humorous stories," explains Mrs. Dent.

Students elaborate on famous bits of history occurring in the past and some of the different topics in the Smith class include the theme directed by Mrs. Dent, by homeroom, comic books, extracurricular activities, etc.
